

Kingfisher

Direct Ltd

PVC tank cover

- Very strong
- Easy to install
- Prevents algae growth and debris being blown into the water

The PVC cover has been designed to cover and overlap the top edge of the tank. The heavy duty reinforced PVC material prevents algae growth and also prevents rainwater and debris being blown by the wind from entering the tank .

The ball valve flap allows access for the supply as well as access for sampling the water.